

Job Title:	ICT Engineer
Reports To:	Head of Engineering & IT
Department:	Engineering & IT

Job Summary

ICT Engineer is responsible for providing broadcast and IT system's maintenance and development. It also requires to provide support and training to system users and develop manuals and user guidelines.

Duties and responsibilities

Systems Maintenance and Development

- To carry out procedural system maintenance on all broadcast and IT systems.
- To maintain all IT system work flows
- To maintain and update all IT Networks
- To maintain and contribute to the development of EMTV's Broadcast & IT Network
- To be an active participant in developing, planning and implementing advance Broadcasting and IT systems

Support and Training

- To train users and IT Support officers of Broadcast and IT systems
- Supervise desktop and system support

Qualifications

- Degree in Computer Science\Information Technology\Electrical Engineering

Requirements

- Minimum of 3 years work experience in similar or related role
- Experience in Networking
- Certifications in CISCO or Microsoft Training
- Experience in System Administration
- Familiar with Linux, MAC OS, Windows 7\8 and Windows Server 2008\2012
- Have good work ethics and could work in a team.
- Could be flexible to work after hours.